

DON'T PUT OFF 'TIL TOMORROW

(Music: From Good Homes; Lyrics: Todd Sheaffer)

There's a look in your eye sounds like a question
There's a look in your eyes takes me away
There's a train on the tracks leavin' the station

Crazy mama, you know what they say...

Don't put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today
Don't put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today

There's a towel on the beach open for business
There's a flame in the west fading away
There's a song on the shelf turning to dust
It's been waiting so long

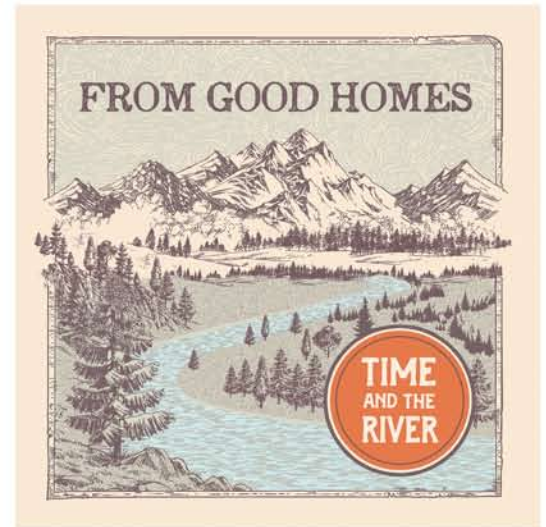

Crazy mama you know what they say...

Don't put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today
Don't put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today

There's a train on the tracks blowing the whistle
There's a train in the station pulling away
There's a flame in the west leaving the picture

Crazy mama you know what they say...

Don't put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today
Don't put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today
