

FROM GOOD HOMES

THE GIVING TREE

(Music: FGH/Lyrics: Todd Sheaffer)

father, I'll sing this one for thee in honor of all you give to me a flower on your branch may this one be

you, the giving tree
you, the giving tree

father, oceans fill with shame grasses bow their head in flame father, all eyes turn to see

father, whose arms extend eternity a sky of blue above the human family we gather now in circle
'round the foot of thee

you, the giving tree
you, the giving tree

(and I know these words are a meal for wolves but I'll send them out
...lambs)
