

FROM GOOD HOMES

GOIN' OUT

(Music/Lyrics: Todd Sheaffer)

I'm tired of watchin' the clock watchin' the tick & the tock I'm slammin' the lock
I'm goin' out
I'm tired of pacin' the halls cleanin' the stalls
I'm over the walls
I'm goin' out

oh, & don't ya know when I get to where I'm goin' it'll all seem funny
lost in a small little world

I got a gut-level wind some kinda howlin' within there's somethin' under y skin
I'm goin' out
I'm tired of mopin' around sinkin' into the ground I'll bust the barriers down
I'm goin' out

oh & don't ya know
when I look back at these dark days it'll all seem funny

I'm tired of lickin' my balls my barrel's hittin' the falls tell everybody that calls I'm goin' out
my horse is hittin' the gate gettin' tired of the wait I'm already late
I'm goin' out

when I clear my head & look around
it'll all seem funny
lost in a small little world
I'm goin' out
